Shockey Cousins and Friends

By: Lesley Shockey

The past year has been hard on all of us. With the COVID-19 virus raging through out the world and so many deaths across the United States, we needed to cancel the face-to-face reunion in Augusta, Georgia. There were a few people who met on Zoom, an APP that enables various persons to converse and see they are talking to. Some of the screen shots will appear later in this Newsletter. A drawing was held for 2020 Shockey Quilt and was won by Vivian Gubler. She made a gift of the quilt to Walt and Cynthia Elsey who are pictured along with the quilt on the front cover of this Newsletter.

As of now I do not know that it is safe to hold a reunion this year or not. They are supposed to up the vaccine production and hopefully people will take advantage of the vaccination when it is made available to them. In the past week my county has increased the number of COVID-19 infected people from 140 to 180 and my county is one of the smaller ones in the state of West Virginia. The state of West Virginia has 2,187 deaths as of the 10th of February. I do not get the numbers for those in Georgia but I have heard the rate of infection is high. Charlotte wants to hold a live reunion instead of the one on Zoom.

I promise to get out the word of the reunion when it is decided one way or the other.

2020 Shockey Family Zoom Reunion

As mentioned before the 2020 Reunion was held on the APP Zoom. Among those who was online to take part in the meeting was Paul Browns, MD; David and Toni Shockey, AR; Kaylene Silvester, NE; Charlotte Shockey, GA; Carol and William Shockey, GA; Angela Shockey, TX; Valerie Shockey Clark, TX.

To subscribe to the list, send a request to me at LesShockey@frontier.com and I will send you an invitation to join if I cannot add your email address directly. If I mail you the invitation, you need to click on the link to "accept the invitation" on the email that you received. Last year we had 34 subscribers on the email list on February 4th when the change started. They had signed up the first day that I announced the new list. I was wondering why I was not receiving any posts from the Shockey list. Upon checking I found that the list had been deleted somehow from my Google account. None of my other lists have been deleted.

The new list is named Shockey Family. I hope that this list does not disappear also.

Craig Vogtsberger: Stay-at-Home Dad with a Disability

Speaking with TeamUP co-captain Craig Vogtsberger today, you might never know he suffered a traumatic injury so severe doctors didn't know where to begin.

After being crushed between two Humvees during a training exercise in the National Guard, Craig was uncertain he'd have any kind of life beyond a wheelchair and prescription pain medication.

Now, almost 20 years later, Craig is not only an award-winning XTERRA para-athlete, he's a busy stay-at-home dad and husband. From his home in Colorado, he maintains a packed schedule between his three children and career as an avid triathlete.

But life as a stay-at-home dad has its share of struggles and challenges. (Christian Shockey line)

Wrestling Honors

Ravenswood, WV native, Robert Shockey, is making a name for himself on the wrestling mat. At just 15-years-old, Shockey has racked up so many championship trophies, medals, and certificates in the 10 years he has been wrestling, that he is running out of places to showcase them all.

Shockey said when he was younger his dad, Nathan Shockey, gave him a choice of playing basketball or wrestling.

“I was a fan of the WWE back then so I chose wrestling,” Shockey said.

Training with Mahindra Wrestling out of Saint Albans and currently a full-time member of the Patriots Wrestling Club (PWC), Shockey has captured several All-American Honors in 2019 and 2020 alone.

Honors include:

- 2019 – NOWAY American Pride National Champion
- 2019 – Virginia Challenge All-American (Virginia Beach, Virginia)
- 2019 – Dixie Nationals Runner-up (Atlanta, Georgia)
- 2020 – NOWAY Winter Throne Nationals All-American
- 2020 – NOWAY Southeast Summer Nationals Freestyle Champion
- 2020 – NOWAY Southeast Summer Nationals Folkstyle Champion

With these honors, Shockey’s totals for 2019-2020 stand at six All-American Honors and three National Titles, as well as being a five-time National Finalist.

Shockey is also an eight-time West Virginia Junior State Finalist and three-time West Virginia State Champion.

Not only are his wrestling talents epic, but he also received Academic All-American 4.0 through the Academic All-America program, a student-athlete program designed to recognize students with exceptional talent in both sports and academics.

Shockey’s latest championships, the 2020 NOWAY Southeast Summer Nationals Freestyle and Folkstyle championships, were recently received at the Myrtle Beach Convention Center in South Carolina at the end of July.

At 140 pounds, Shockey was undefeated through both tournaments going 8-0 with three pins, two technical falls, two majors, and one minor.

“He’s wrestled locally since he was young, but knowing he was getting ready to go into high school, we really started traveling to expose him to more competition, to keep him going,” Shockey’s mother Jenna Schindler said. “You need to experience competition to grow.”

Formerly a student at Ravenswood Middle School, Shockey will be starting his freshman year at Parkersburg South High School where he will be a member of the Patriots wrestling team.

With his excellent grades and wrestling talent, Shockey hopes to earn college scholarships in the sport so he can continue his passion as long as possible.

Heather May Shockey-Barrett, 53

Our precious mother, Heather May Shockey-Barrett, 53, passed away peacefully at home, with her family by her side, on Friday, October 9, 2020 after a brave battle with glioblastoma. Heather grew up all around the world as part of a military family but called Virginia home.

She spent summers with her father's family in Loudoun County and grew to love animals of all sorts. Later, she graduated from Marymount University with a degree in biology and used that to launch her career as a Naturalist. Heather was a wonderful mother. She devoted her life to making sure that her boys knew that they were loved. She was their strongest advocate and made sure that she was available whenever they needed her help. Her true joy in life was their happiness and she delighted in all of their accomplishments. Heather devoted her life to her sons and always put them and others before herself. In recent years, Heather worked at Riverbend Nature Center as a Naturalist where she was well-known as "the Nature Lady." That job suited her gentle spirit and allowed her to spend time in the great outdoors. Heather was never happier than when she was out in nature teaching people about the wonderful world of snakes, or spiders, or bees or really any other creature that ought to remain outside. Rather than dispatching an errant insect in her house, she was more likely to find it a lovely new home in the yard. She loved to teach her boys about the natural world and organized many neighborhood hikes to view bluebells and other local wonders. Heather was an avid reader and would pass on her recommendations to her book club and friends whenever she came across something that was too good to miss. She was a devoted attendee of George Mason's Fall for the Book and introduced many a friend to that event. Kind to all, and unassuming, Heather will be remembered as a fiercely loving mother, a true friend, and the ultimate example of compassion. Heather is survived by her three sons, Ben, Peter and Rob Barrett; her sister Nicole Miniclier (Jeff Hughes) and brothers John Miniclier (Kimberly) and Andrew Miniclier (Stephanie). Also missing Heather are her father Jack Shockey, stepmother Patricia Shockey and stepfather LTC John Miniclier US Army Ret.; aunt Eleanor Matney (Bob), aunt Joann Benson and Aunt Sonja Shockey.

Her mother, Kathy Miniclier, preceded her in death in April 2020. Please join us in celebrating Heather's life at a funeral Mass at St. Marks Catholic Church in Vienna, VA on Friday, October 16, 2020 at 12:30 p.m. Interment will be private. www.moneyandking.com

Most of all she told wonderful stories of growing up playing, fighting and laughing with her siblings.

After graduating from high school June headed for bigger cities to live and work, eventually ending up in Kansas City, Missouri, where she would live for the rest of her life. In those early years she worked at a large downtown bank, where she took pride in her work and the responsibility she was given. Along the way she met and married Bill Shockey, and she gave birth to her three sons – Gary, Michael and James.

June was a devoted mother to her boys. She was especially always so proud and encouraging of her sons' many creative musical and artistic interests and endeavors. She enjoyed driveway basketball games and long walks with them. She lived with their loud music and louder wrestling matches. Most importantly, she was the rock they always knew they could count on, no matter what.

During the years while she was raising her young family, June opened her own in-home daycare business, and she would continue to run it for more than 50 years, until the time of her passing. She took great pride in having cared for multiple generations of kids for several families.

June was eternally grateful for her three grandsons, Bryan, Jason and Dylan, whom she adored. There was no game that was too crazy, no bedtime too late, no toy too expensive, no snack off limits, and no shortage of pizza or chocolate chip cookies. She loved every single minute she spent with them throughout their childhoods, and she was tremendously proud of the young men they have become.

The constant, enduring thread throughout June's life was her faith in her Lord. She was a woman of deep Christian belief, and all who knew her saw that she genuinely lived her faith daily, with a true servant's heart. June had so much love to give – for her own family, for her daycare families, for her church family, for her community. She was very active in her church over the years, participating in many various ministries working with children, helping the homeless and more. She particularly enjoyed sharing her love of flowers by tending her church's flower gardens.

June's loving spirit and abiding faith shown through in everything she did. She will be fondly remembered and deeply missed.

June was preceded in death by her parents, Ned Freeland Lane and Jessie Fern Lane; by siblings Harold, Kate, Herb, Bill, Jim, Janet and Frank; and by her former husband and the father of her children, Billie Dean Shockey. June is survived by her three dearly loved sons: Gary Dean Shockey, Michael Bryan Shockey and wife Cammy, and James David Shockey; by three treasured grandsons: Bryan Lyle Shockey, Jason Dean Shockey and Dylan Campbell Shockey; by her beloved siblings: Ann Young, Mary Arnold, Frances Wahl and husband Harley, Bob Lane, Joe Lane and wife Linda; and by numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and more extended family.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to:

Gary A. Davis. 73

It is with profound sadness that the family of Gary A. Davis announce his sudden passing on December 9, 2020 at the age of 73.

Gary was born in Flagstaff, Arizona on December 31, 1946 to Glenn D. Davis Jr. and Mary (Shockey) Davis. Gary grew up in Northern Arizona and graduated from Flagstaff High School in 1964. Upon graduating High School, he enlisted into the Army. He served as a Combat Engineer from 1964 - 1970 in Vietnam. Gary returned to Arizona after his service and began working as a cowboy on various ranches in northern Arizona. Additionally, he operated heavy equipment most of his working career which led him to run his own small excavation business for several years. During his working years he also spent some time in Colorado, operating heavy equipment. After years of hard work, he was able to fulfill one of his dreams of owning and operating a cattle ranch in Northern Arizona. Gary was an exceptional Blacksmith and turned his love for blacksmithing from a hobby to a small business in his later years. Gary had many passions in life. He loved the outdoors and anything that brought him to it. Sitting around a campfire would bring out his jokes and light hearted stories. He enjoyed hunting with family and friends. Gary had a keen eye for finding Indian artifacts where no one else could. In his retirement, Gary and Theresa spent many summers in upstate New York, where he was able to focus on his Blacksmithing, while enjoying the cool summers there.

Gary was well known for his intimidating stature, his kind heart, a strong sense of humor and full-bodied laugh. Gary's faith in the Lord brings comfort to those he has left behind, allowing us to know he is at peace.

Gary will be remembered and loved always; by his wife Theresa, children, grandchildren, great grandchild, mother, siblings, nieces, nephews and countless others that he has known in his life.

A Graveside service will be Friday, 2:00 p.m. at Citizens' Cemetery, Veterans' Section. Memories and condolences can be shared with family online at www.norvelowensmortuary.com

Lachlan Blair Hart, 88, Celina, TX

On Saturday, February 27th, 2021, Lachlan Blair Hart of Celina, Texas, loving husband, father, and grandfather passed away at the age of 88. Lachlan was born on November 30, 1932 in Delavan Township, Minnesota to Everett William (E.W.) and Frances (Kantack) Hart. Lachlan learned to play the bagpipes from his father and gave his first public performance around the age of 10. He later joined his father's bagpipe band, The Camp Mor Kilties.

After high school, he joined the Air Force Marching Band Drum and Bugle Corps. During the Korean War, they traveled all over the world as ambassadors for the United States.

After leaving the Air Force, he went to Mankato State College and then became an insurance adjuster. He was always telling stories from his life growing up on the farm, although he could never bring himself to return to the cold northern winters after he moved to Florida. In Florida, he met and married Carole Louise Shockey on May 30, 1975. They lived in Ft. Myers for over 40 years, developing many cherished friendships, before moving to Texas. Above all else, Lachlan was a generous friend and an inveterate storyteller. Long drives to school were filled with dinosaur stories, bedtimes featured daring escapes from the bull Sycamore Sunburst, and even the most trivial event could be spun into a thirty minute tale.

He is survived by his wife, Carole Hart of Celina, Texas; children Virginia Prey and husband, Ken of Lincoln, Nebraska, Sarah Damstedt and husband, Benjamin of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Andrew Hart and wife, Taralyn of Celina, Texas; grandchildren, Lachlan Prey, Garrett Prey, Annika Damstedt, Eli Damstedt, Tyler Hart, Adriana Hart, Kaylee Hart, Samantha Hart, and Caleb Hart; sisters, Frances Jean Hart and Kathryn Milne; and three nieces and one nephew. How awesome it was today to learn that my 5th Cousin, Avon Shockey, not only served the same police agency I serve today, but he also worked in the same Motor Unit that I am currently assigned to almost 100 years later.
