Shockey Cousins and Friends

Hello cousins!

I hope everyone has had a wonderful year. I started attending Southern New Hampshire University online at the beginning of the year thanks to Amazon and the Pell Grant. I am working on a Bachelors in English and Creative Writing with a focus in Fiction as well as a minor in Graphic Design. Thankfully I already have about 14 credits from the little bit of time I spent at Savannah College of Art & Design. I was surprised they transferred since it has been over 22 years but great for me as it is less to complete. I am co-writing a cozy mystery series with an author friend of mine, Emmaline Rose. Think of it as genealogy mixed in with mystery.. I hope to try to finish at least one of the three books I started a couple of years ago as well. Also, I started planning a horror book with a friend from work, Jennifer Salter. In the next month I hope to have a 'Family Genealogy Questions' workbook available to be purchased on Amazon, I just have to do some minor corrections. That seem to take me forever to fix as this second term is kicking my butt.

I have had to put starting a family on hold for a bit due to needing to pay down bills. I did get pregnant in August but as soon as I saw the positive I found out I was losing it; what they call a chemical pregnancy. Since the last newsletter I got a transfer to the AGS1 building that was up the road from the AGS5 I started at. I have a full time job with great benefits which include infertility benefits. I also got a replacement car through Carvana. Same as the one I had before but red with black leather and no sunroof.

Mauri Shockey did get back with me and sadly can not find the recordings he had made of Les Shockey during the tours. I will still try to put together a map for others to take their own tours if they are unable to make it to the reunions. One of the many things on my list to do. Granted we would love to see everyone at whichever location you can make it to.

Several months ago our cousin, Jeff Niles, asked about looking into the Y-DNA of FamilyTreeDNA to help figure out the lines better. He knows way more about it than I do and he found some amazing things. He has so much information that I decided since this newsletter is already going to be huge to start a Shockey DNA Newsletter. We have requests for more Y-DNA tests to be done to help with defining even more of certain lines. We are also looking to try to define lines with autosomal DNA with AncestryDNA ThruLines as well as an Ancestor Project I started on GEDMatch.

The Shockey (all spellings, in-laws, etc) database is up to 63,114 people as of the publishing of this newsletter which means we have added 3,084 more people since the reunion. I also received a GEDCOM from Sharon Shockey Wetzel to see about merging into the main database so that should add more numbers as well since she researched her Valentine lines extensively. I just don't think I'll be able to merge prior to the publishing of the newsletter.

The Facebook group Shockey Roots is up to 1,067 members which is very exciting! Lisa Bowen has found some additional information that I will try to upload to the main Shockey website at some point when I have a break in school work. Love your cousin,

Charlotte Shockey

SHOCKEY-SCHACKE DNA PROJECT

We have lines that we need testers for which will be in the newsletter. Also, trying to figure out lines via autosomal DNA as well so females can still participate.

You can find the SHOCKEY-SCHACKE DNA Project at:

GEDMatch Ancestor Project is Shockey - Schacke - Jaggi - Jacky - Jacob.

We are excited to invite you to join us for the 2023 national Shockey Family Reunion! This year's reunion will be hosted by Wayne & Theresa Vincent, and it will be held from June 29 – July 3 in the beautiful region around San Antonio and New Braunfels, Texas. The area offers many scenic and exciting places for us to explore during the reunion itself, and also provides many opportunities for an extended vacation as well: water activities, historical sites, shopping and dining in towns that still retain the feel of German settlers from the 1800s, and much more.

1. Lodging: We have secured a block of rooms ($105 for a king, $119 for two queens) at the La Quinta Inn in Schertz, Texas. Just call 210 655-2700 and ask for the Shockey room block ("WAY1" group code). Please ensure you make your reservation as soon as possible in order to secure this rate. As in the past, we have a meeting room reserved so that we can visit between activities.

KARIE BAUMANN

Karie Wagner Baumann, you are gone from our sight, but never from our hearts. You leave behind a community of friends and family grateful that each were touched by your passion for the natural world and nurturing ways. Karie passed peacefully on May 22, 2022 surrounded by family. Her battle with cancer was long and hard-fought. She was born on November 9, 1955 to James William Wagner and Margaret Holmquist Wagner in the farming community of Plentywood, Montana. Karie was raised with her three siblings to work hard, appreciate the seasons and land, care for family and community, as well as to hold a deep faith in God. Typical to a farming lifestyle, Karie spent a lot of time outdoors and tending the gardens. She is remembered as loving to cook and being creative in the kitchen. Her family trips often took them to Canada for camping and fishing. This early awareness of smells, tastes, colors and overall healthy lifestyle led her to create a skincare line, later in life, called Jakare with her business partner, Joan Beseman. For over two decades, she distributed a vast line of natural skin products across the US with ingredients from all over the world. Karie's greatest pride and sense of joy was her daughter Brianna and her two granddaughters, Ava and Ahna. Living just a mile away, Karie was able to participate in their every day routines and infuse a little hard-won wisdom in their lives. Karie and Brianna worked side by side in the early days of Brianna's MoJava coffee hut, formulating recipes for muffins, burritos and more. They are, forever, two connected souls whose bond can never be broken by loss. In 1999, Karie met Rich Baumann at his retail shop, Rijline Metal Art, and the two were instantly in love. Their combined creativity and curiosity astounded those who knew this loving couple. Their passion for new tastes and sights led them to years of adventures, floating the Grand Canyon, tasting the spices of Oaxaca, sea kayaking the remote islands in the Sea of Cortez and exploring the culture of Croatia -- to name but a few. Karie loved to collect art and handmade pieces from wherever she visited. Her wooden spoon collection is testament to her love of cooking, handmade crafts, and the natural world. Karie and Rich shared their "happy place" at their home and pavilion in Four Corners. For years they hosted countless parties for July 4th, weddings, and the grandest chili roasting party each fall with fresh hatch chilis spinning to perfection in the enormous roasting cage. So many memories were made around the grand firepit while the Gallatin River flowed idly by. These gatherings gave Karie so much joy. Karie is survived by William & Margaret Wagner (father, mother), Rich Baumann (husband), Brianna Mittleider (daughter), Ava & Ahna Downer (grandchildren), Linda & Richard Shockey (sister & brother-in-law), Terry Wagner (brother), Michael & Marni Wagner (brother & sister-in-law), Nathan Shockey, Josh Shockey, Eric Shockey, Evan Wagner, Tessa (Wagner) Vannest, Cheyenne (Wagner) Hennigh, Marissa Kintzing (nieces and nephews), as well as numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. A celebration of life will be held on June 25, 2022.

DOLORES JOAN LUND

May 23, 1932 - August 6, 2022

Dolores (Dee), born on her mother's 17th birthday, was a birthday present and life-long gift to her family and friends. The oldest of seven siblings, she helped raise her brothers and sisters during the Great Depression, learning how to cook on a wood-fired stove, ironing and cleaning the house by the age of five while her mother and father worked on their Walla Walla truck farm, raising sweet onions, carrots, and spinach. Born into poverty, new clothes were a rarity, consisting of hand-sewn donations from a local charity. She often missed school to care for family members and felt humiliated when she overheard her teachers talking about her difficult family life. Still, the difficult circumstances helped her become a strong and caring woman determined to create a better life for her family.

Indeed, she lived the American Dream and ensured her children did as well.

The first member of her family to graduate from high school, she went to work for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company as a switchboard operator. During this time, she agreed to go on a blind date and met her future husband, Charles "Chuck" M. Lund. Unimpressed at first by the (almost) bald young man who knocked on her door, his charisma and worldliness—along with four years of long-distance dating while he attended college—convinced her that he was "the one." They married in October, 1955, and children quickly followed, with Mary Ann, born in 1956, Eric in 1958, and Michael in 1963.

Dee thought she would live the rest of her life in Pasco, Washington, where Chuck took a job with Sears. Life consisted of work during the week and visiting her family in Walla Walla every weekend. Married life, however, soon found her moving from one town to another as Chuck took a job with the federal government. They were transferred regularly from one duty station to another, including a long stint in Spokane from 1964 to 1972. She hated the moves! Even so, each was executed perfectly with as little disruption to the children's lives as possible. Her dream of living in one place for a long time finally came true when they moved back to Spokane in 1994 to be close to grandchildren. She was everything one would expect from an Italian grandmother.

Dee inherited her father's skill at math, and returned to work in the early '70's as a bank teller in order to pay her children's college tuition. She enjoyed the work well enough to spend the next 20 years working in banks, long after all three had earned degrees.

Returning to Spokane in the '90s allowed her to reconnect with old friends, including her Beta Sigma Phi "sisters." She served a number of roles within the sorority and felt especially honored the year she was named "Woman of the Year" for her chapter. Prior to the Covid-19 years, Dee was also active in the St. Mary Catholic Parish, participating in a Bible Study group, Women at the Well, and the Loving Care Ministry.

Dee never stopped learning or trying new things. Terrified of water, she took swimming lessons as an adult and learned to float. Seeing how much fun the family had on the ski slopes, she took lessons in her forties so she could enjoy the bunny hill while the family skied the mountain. Expecting her life to be lived within the confines of Walla Walla County, she and Charles became world travelers, with three trips to Italy and Europe, and numerous trips to Mexico. Road trips across the US were a given, to visit relatives and the sights. It was a major disappointment when she could no longer drive across the state to visit her children in her 80s.

Dolores was predeceased by her beloved husband, Charles M. Lund, as well as her father, Mario Castoldi, mother Mary (Bottiani) Castoldi, sister Elaine Montgomery, and brothers Richard and Dennis Castoldi. Loved ones who will miss her presence in their lives include her children, Eric Lund, Michael Lund and Mary Ann (Kyle) Goodwin as well as grandchildren Anthony and Maddie Goodwin. She is also survived by two sisters, Beth Sheffield and Donna Shockey and a brother, Kenneth Castoldi.

Born of a restless and energetic body and mind, her body at least, is now at rest.

She loved "her babies" and collected photos and stories of each one. Many children were rocked to sleep by Ms. LaRue.

LaRue was a member of the Baptist Church and raised her daughters in church. She volunteered many hours teaching GAs, Sunday School classes, and Vacation Bible School. She loved children and loved sharing Bible stories with them.

HAROLD DEAN MATTIX

Dean Mattix, proud husband, father, grandfather, William Penn Statesmen fan, and long suffering Cubs Fan died on Sunday, June 26, 2022.

For those who knew Dean, you know he loved his family, his community, his friends, the game of golf (some days), fishing, and all his various sports teams. Dean always had an opinion, story, or smile to share. But here are some things you might not know about Dean.

Dean was his middle name. He was born Harold Dean Mattix on July 16, 1945, in Atascadero, CA, to Harold and Katherine Green Mattix, while his father was serving in the US Army. After that short stint as a California boy, his family moved back to Oskaloosa, where he lived a long and happy life. He graduated from Oskaloosa High School (go Indians!) in 1963, and from William Penn College (go Statesmen!) in 1970. As he finished college, he met Margaret Nelson, a first-year teacher at Grant School, the very same elementary school that Dean himself attended. They wed in Burlington, Iowa on June 20, 1970. To this union, two children were born: Jennifer and Jason. He taught them to ride a bike, catch a fish, play ball, swing a golf club (one much better than the other), but most importantly, to be tough, independent, and hard-working.

As for hard work, Dean spent most of his adult life working for the State of Iowa. He started with Job Service and worked there until he retired in 2008, when the Department was known as Workforce Development. He met many friends and saw many changes over the 36 years he spent with the Department. In addition to his various roles with the State, Dean, an avid golfer, also coached golf at his Alma Mater, William Penn College. He so enjoyed working with the many athletes he coached and looked forward to those annual trips south to kick off the season in some warm-weather destination. Dean loved sports. Golf, baseball, football, basketball, track, you name it, he was interested. He was the best softball coach a kid could ask for. He was that crazy dad who followed his son on every hole of every golf course the kid played. He loved teaching his grandsons to fish and golf. He loved attending Cubs games with Jason, Golden State Warriors games with Jenn and Oakland Raiders games with his son-in-law Mike. If it was a sporting event, Dean was in, and he always had an opinion! The highlight of his love for sports and his family came this past February when he was able to visit Northern California to see both his grandsons play high school basketball. There were endless discussions following each game. If you know Dean, you can practically hear him meticulously recount every play with Connor and Liam!

Dean was an active member of the First Christian Church in Oskaloosa, where he had attended since he was a boy. He has served as a deacon, an elder, and a pretty terrific Sunday School teacher. And in retirement, he played his fair share of dart ball and dominoes, making more lasting friendships in the process.

He was also very involved with the Elks organization, serving as Exalted Ruler and District Deputy Director several times. These roles brought the opportunity for he and Margaret to travel to some great places and meet many new friends. He organized the local and district Hoop Shoot annually and the annual state golf tournament. In fact, at the time of his death, Dean was busy managing golf entries that continue to arrive at the house, a job that Margaret will do her best to carry on for Dean this season.

We are so lucky to have known Dean and built so many memories over the years. We'll miss him every day.

Dean is survived by his wife Margaret, of 52 years, his daughter Jennifer and husband Mike Moore of Pleasant Hill, CA, his son Jason of Chicago, IL, his two grandsons Connor and Liam Moore, his brother Joe (Diane) of Weaver, IA, his sister Cindy (Dale) Braden of Oskaloosa, sister-in-law Kathy and brother-in-law Stan Young of Osage Beach, MO, and brother-in-law Jim and sister-in-law Jennifer Nelson of Cheyenne, WY, in addition to many nieces, nephews, and so many friends.

Dean was preceded in death by his parents, Harold and Kate, in-laws LeRoy and Phyllis Nelson, and sisters-in-law Janet Hiller and Debbie Mattix.

Funeral Services for Dean will be held at 11 a.m., Friday, July 1, 2022, at the First Christian Church in Oskaloosa. Cremation will follow the service and burial will be in Old White Cemetery. Visitation will begin at 11 a.m., Thursday, June 30, 2022, at Langkamp Funeral Chapel; the family will greet visitors from 5-7 p.m. Thursday evening. Memorials may be made to William Penn University or First Christian Church.

PATRICIA ZELLERS

Spring Valley, IL - Patricia D. Zellers, 63, of Spring Valley passed away unexpectedly at home after a brief illness on Monday, December 12.

Pat was born October 20, 1959 in Marseilles IL to the late James and Judith (Roe) Mosier. She married Thomas Zellers on August 27, 1976.

Pat was the mother of Kimberly (Shute) and Shawn Zellers. She was the grandmother to Abbie and Alivia Shute and Cole and Fen Zellers.

Pat was an avid gardener who loved being outside with her hands in the dirt and tending to an enormous indoor plant collection. She loved reading, cooking, and baking for her family and friends.

Those hobbies paled in comparison to her true passion in life, being a mother and grandmother.

Pat was one of the eldest of 8 siblings, and she knew from an early age she wanted a family of her own to care for. She raised her children Kimberly and Shawn to never know the horrors of a frozen meal or store-bought Halloween costume. She worked tirelessly throughout their childhood to give them everything they needed, and most of what they wanted, except sugar cereal. Pat returned to the workforce once her children were in high school, but blissfully and without regret retired when her first grandchild was born so that she could raise her, and then her sister for their working mother.

She ushered Abbie and Alivia Shute through their childhood with the same love, attention, and pride that she raised her kids; spoiling them rotten, but still not allowing sugar cereal.

Her grandsons Cole and Fen Zellers, who live in Ann Arbor, Michigan received the same boundless love and energy from afar when she couldn't be there to love on them in person.

Everyone who knew Pat knows that she was the kindest, most generous and giving person, doing anything she could to bring happiness to others without ever asking for anything in return. Pat is survived by her husband, her children, and grandchildren, siblings David (JoAnn) Mosier, of Wisconsin, Thomas Mosier, of Arizona, Kathy (Tom) Kampa, of Wisconsin, Steven (Joni) Mosier, of Michigan, Nora (Kevin) Brewster, of Michigan, Lisa (Steven) Bosen, of Michigan, and Angie (Chuck) Shockey of Utica, many aunts, uncles and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, brother James Mosier Jr. and granddaughter Aerin Shute.

In accordance with Pat's wishes, cremation rights have been accorded and no funeral services will be held.

A celebration of life will take place from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 17 at Downtown Event Center 432 S. Main St., Princeton.

In 1975, he met Suanne Shockey Johnson. They dated for 6 years and then married in Las Vegas on February 20, 1981. They didn't have children but loved the dogs they owned just as much. They both retired in 2006 and moved to a rural area outside of Como. David considered Sulphur Springs his second home, making lots of friends and participating in various activities. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church and a founding member of the Sulphur Springs Corvette Club. His Corvettes were his prized possessions.

LEONARD JAY SHOCKEY

Our dear sweet brother passed away in Vancouver at the age of 60. Len was born in Flin Flon, MB and grew up in Allan, SK. Len worked at several jobs throughout his life including CN as a Station Operator and later became a graphic designer after obtaining his designation with marks that put him at the top of his class. He was extremely creative and was a very talented artist. He had a passion for animals and embraced nature in all its glory which gave him such comfort. Around the age of 25, life became challenging for Len as he struggled to overcome the realities of living with a mental illness. While his life was not always easy, you could always see in his bright blue eyes a glimmer of hope and the traits of the brother we knew and loved. It was once said..."What mental health needs is more sunlight, more candor, more unashamed conversations about illnesses that affect not only individuals, but their families as well." He fought this illness for many years, and now he is at peace. We loved him more than he ever understood. Rest well Len...until we meet again.

Len was survived by his brothers Ralph Shockey and Russell Shockey and sisters Jayne (Larry) Mosselman and their daughters Jodie and Sara Mosselman and Lori Shockey and her children Johnathan and Jaylyn Bennett. He was predeceased by our parents Jay and Roseanne Shockey.

This shall be my final wish,

With minutes due to death,

As I lay weakening, wasting away,
 Now at last this shall be my day,
 Rememberings flash before my eyes,
 As my loved ones say their last goodbyes,
 Hands held in hand to form a circle,
 Meant for unity,
 Now as one, a formation,
 A circle of life, you see,
 Yet unfortunate souls must die someday,
 But for those unfortunate, the others pray,
 For the memories do not vanish away,
 Within our hearts, their presence stays.

RYAN DOKICH

With heavy hearts we regret to inform you that Ryan Dokich, aka "Roscoe Shockey" has left the planet.

As with most of us, Ryan was a complex person and during his life he fought and won many battles. Although he had a lion's heart, some wounds run too deep and not every battle can be won. On February 26, 2023, Ryan lost his final battle.

Ryan Allyn Dokich was born October 24, 1979 in Orange, CA. He was lively, smart, and bold as a child. He had a curiosity that put the "cat" to shame, and his mother encouraged it. Ry grew to be a handsome charismatic man with a quick wit. He served honorably in the Marine Corps and worked in many different vocations. While living in California, he met and married the love of his life, Viviana Salas. He graduated Cum Laude from California State University San Marcos with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. After graduation Ryan and Viviana relocated to Texas to be near their families and pursue new opportunities. Ryan was quickly recognized for his intelligence and work ethic by Vitesco Technologies who began grooming him for high level management.

Ryan is survived by his wife, Viviana Salas Dokich; his mother, Karen E. Shutes, and his father, Bill Botto; grandmother Phyllis Hollywood and grandfather, Steve Foster; grandmother Ginny Shutes; Aunts Michele (Kris) Herchberger; Jennifer (Erik) Mansoor; Uncles Grover (Charlotte) Shutes; Damon Shutes; and Robert (Luciene) Botto. Cousins Codi, Kara, Daniel, Andrew, Matthew, Katie, Abbie, Teagan, Kellan, and the newest additions to Ryan's family, Miss Crazy Fire and Miss Samantha. With our deepest gratitude we want to also mention the "brothers" that Ryan chose, Jose Salas and James Wilson. Special mention to Mama Luisa.

We thank you, Ryan, for all the love and joy that you brought into all of our lives. You will live forever in our hearts and in our memories. We love and miss you, so! We pray that all of your wounds are now healed.

Until we meet again...Rest in Peace.
